No. There is no evidence that the San Diego firm that made the San Diego Stadium scoreboard made the solar power panels for Skylab.

Meet CPO Next Week

Wow! Those in government who are determined to see the government becomes bigger, dropped the other shoe last week.

It came just in time to reconstitute the warning that Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO) wants to run the whole governmental show in San Diego County.

It came shortly after two members of the County Board of Supervisors—William Craven and Lou Conde—asked the other three supervisors to join them in an evening meeting May 24 at 7 o'clock to help establish an official position of the Supervisors' attitude in CPO. So far, the board has seen fit to stay clear of membership. County must be brought in if CPO is to be functional.

The shoe that was dropped was the federal proposal that authority for administering grants be recalled from the Board of Supervisors and various other local jurisdictions.

Under new guidelines, CPO will be made the clearing house for these funds. It already has been given the power to review more than 100 types of grant applications.

CPO started out as an agency capable of doing what local governments cannot do alone. Pollution, mass transportation and land use were key interests. CPO's authority is now being widened and the Board of Supervisors will certainly concern itself with that threat May 24.

The Board of Supervisors is not a member of CPO. When CPO set up its weighted formula of voting, it gave the City of San Diego 30 of the 70 votes. The remainder was whacked up among the 12 other municipalities in San Diego County. County government would have to fish for its votes from among the 40 not latched onto by the City of San Diego. It gives practical control of county government to San Diego City. CPO, and its burgeoning staff, would conduct the business that county residents elected individual supervisors for. CPO would not be responsive to the will of the people because no election will ever be held to stem the agency from performing tasks that should be first approved by the electorate.

Some have already seen CPO as another tier of government—a super-government.

Supervisor Lou Conde is militantly opposed to CPO in its present form.

Conde said, "... (my) belief in the principle that government closest to the people is more responsive and offers the most effective individual participation."

Predecessor of CPO was SANCOC which was Mayor Pete Wilson's Bill when he was an assemblyman. Conde said "Wilson's bill, if adopted, would have converted CPO into a regional authority with its own bureaucracy, taxing power, and in some areas veto power over a majority vote of the elected representatives in the individual cities and County."

"Assumption of veto power in areas of responsibility assigned to the cities and County under their charters, which were approved by the people, was to be granted without consent of the voters. While Wilson and CPO were not successful, the attempt to create a 'super-government' without the consent of the people remains a threat as long as Mayor Pete Wilson is left with his tremendous power in CPO," Conde said.

He noted that Wilson had demonstrated his CPO muscle by allocating nearly all of the region's gas tax funds to the city-owned transit authority.

Three of the five supervisors were elected largely by citizens in unincorporated areas. Under the present CPO makeup, their representation would be almost useless, it is believed.

In their call for the evening meeting, Supervisors Craven and Conde said they would support dropping the CPO boycott under two conditions:

1. CPO will not seek to ultimately set itself up through legislative action as an official body with taxing power, power to enforce ordinances, or any veto power over local government without the direct consent of the electorate in each jurisdiction;

2. San Diego County have no less voting participation than any other governmental agency in the region.

It might be said that the San Diego County CPO relationship is unique in that the CPO boundaries are exactly the same as San Diego County's. The Board of Supervisors, with its huge pool of manpower and with bureaus already in existence within the county operation, could, with a little more authority and with the money to be handed to CPO, probably do a better job than "another tier of government," some believe.

The May 24 meeting in the supervisors' chambers is open to the public and opinion of the electorate is solicited.

CPO budget for the year is $495,684 with the salary average for 32 people already employed is $15,495 annually.

CPO's attorney, Roger Hedgecock, strongly environmentalist, is on a retainer of $800 monthly. After 10 hours of legal work his tab is $45 an hour with a maximum of $600 for a 3-month period.

Bids Called on Helix Water District Projects

Authorization to call for bids on water main replacements and new extensions in several areas was granted by the Helix Water District board of directors to the staff during the regular meeting of the board last week.

Prior to approval, the directors reconsidered an environmental assessment filed with the County Clerk in April. Since no comments had been filed either by experts or interested citizens, the board ordered a notice of de-termination to be filed with the County Clerk.

Included in the project is replacement of pipe in Mt. Helix dr., Vivera dr. and Alto dr., in La Mesa to improve access and to lessen potential property damage from fires. Olive st., North ave., and Costabella dr. in Lemon Grove will have larger mains installed to improve fire service in the growing industrial area.

Small diameter pipes will be replaced in Terrace dr., Bancroft dr. and an easement road west of Bancroft in Spring Valley and La Mesa.

Russell Tells Planners About Broadway Plans

Discussion of a proposed county service area for Lemon Grove and an upcoming hearing June 4, when it will be decided whether or not to add to the Broadway beautification project to the CSA, were the main items at the general meeting of the Lemon Grove Planning Association last Thursday night.

Ed Swanson, County Service Area Coordinator, discussed the feasibility of adding the beautification project to the already formed park service area. Bob Russell, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, explained that efforts to get Broadway improved have been long stymied by two property owners along Broadway. He feels that the majority of business people in the area recognize that the beautification project would add to both the safety of pedestrians and drivers and also give a much better impression of the local shopping area.

The beautification project would include landscaping of the new Lemon Grove Avenue off-ramp from Highway 94 and landscaping along Broadway from King to Kempf sts.

Russell feels that adding the project to the service area would enhance its likelihood of receiving a good voter turnout at the election to set a tax rate for the service area. The Business Women's League of Lemon Grove has estimated that the present cost of maintaining the right-of-way along the railroad is approximately $200 per month. The group doesn't feel that it can continue its support for much longer. The addition of the beautification project to the service area will be considered by LAFCO June 4, Room 358, at 9 a.m., in the Civic Center in San Diego.

VDO Planners Re-Hash Goal For Population

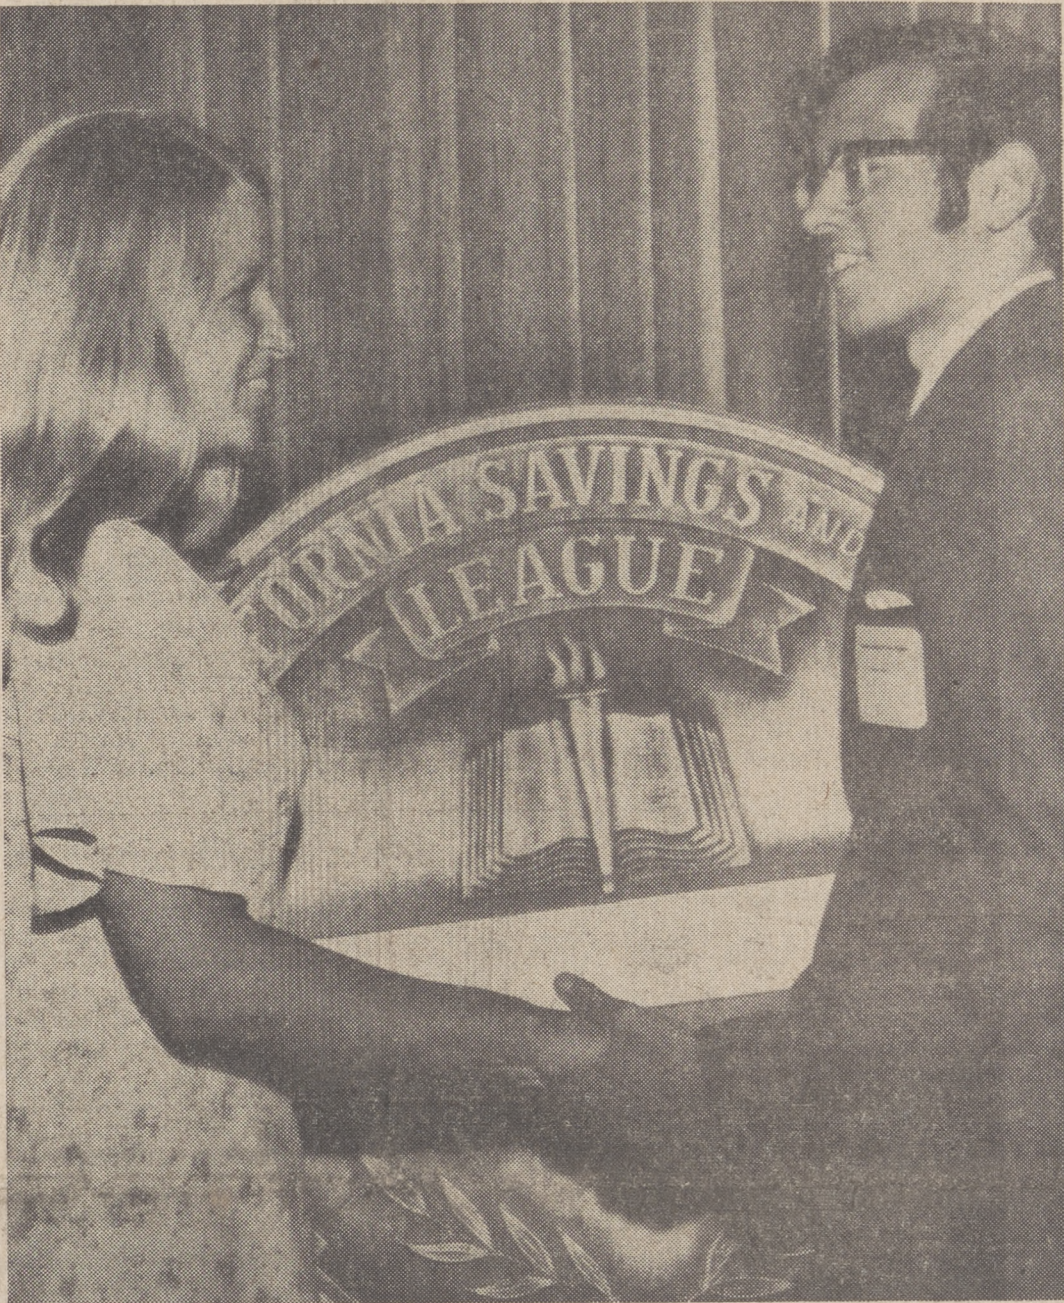

While no concrete decisions were made on future growth, other than that reported recently by Valle de Oro Planning Association, the May 9 meeting had several important items to be discussed.

Herb Ketell, president of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, said he objected to the population growth goal, set by the Association, of 2 per cent per year. He said the fact is that in the past ten years the increase has been 45.3 per cent.

He also took exception to the goal of limiting residential growth to one acre or larger home sites.

The Association has requested from the County an extension of time to June 27, to allow for an environmental review process. The Association also has requested for special use permit to erect an antenna and an electronics equipment building, at Jamaica blvd. and Sweetwater Springs blvd for community cable teevee reception.

In other business, Art Lee presented a slate of officers to be elected at the May 23 meeting. Those nominated are: for vice chairmen, Bob Perkins, Charles Kitchell, David Herring, Ernie Kotnik, and Dr. Stuart Bowne; for secretary, Kim Friher and John Blackford.

They were among 43 standout students honored by the organization and the California Savings and Loan League at a Thursday banquet in the Bahia.

Rick Debus, Pam Osinski Win S&L Awards

Two local scholars were among high school seniors in the county receiving a total of $4,300 in the S.D. Savings and Loan Clearing Assn's 16th annual "Outstanding Students" recognition program.

Park Construction Underway at RSD

Construction is nearing completion on the recreational building, the contoured swimming pool and other features of Hatfield Park in Sweetwater Village West, the first increment of Rancho San Diego's "new town" development in east San Diego County.

The one-story, 1400 square foot structure, which will be used for resident gatherings and group activities, will have open beam ceilings, asphalt tile floors and a large fireplace. In addition to a large meeting room, there will be a kitchen, office, restrooms, and storage rooms.

Hatfield Park, the first of two neighborhood parks planned for Sweetwater Village, will be a four-acre landscaped area with facilities for swimming, sports, meetings, and other types of resident activities. The neighborhood park will contain the recreation building as well as a large swimming pool and patio with an adjacent fenced-in children's area with play equipment. The park, within easy walking distance of all residents, will offer picnic grounds, barbecue areas, a multi-purpose paved court for such sports as volleyball and basketball, and a large general play field.

Situated in Sweetwater Village just off Cliffside Avenue, Hatfield Park is abutted by recently landscaped slopes. About a quarter of a mile to the south, Hansen Park will be developed as another four-acre recreational area in Sweetwater Village.

The two contracts awarded for the park development—construction and landscaping—total approximately $150,000. Construction, now underway by F. E. Young Construction Co., with Paul Olson as job superintendent, is scheduled for completion in early June.

Landscaping by Erem Landscape Company, San Diego, will begin the first part of May with a scheduled completion date of July 1.

'Biggest, Best Ever' Says Parade Chairman

It'll be the biggest parade in Lemon Grove Old Time Days history.

It'll be the best, too, according to Don McCray, Old Time Days chairman and president of OTD Association.

There will be seven full divisions, each one having more than 10 participants each. No one could recall a previous parade with more than 110 units.

The parade starts at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning from the marshalling grounds on Harris st. at Broadway—not far from Massachusetts. Then the hour-long event will unfold before what is expected to be the largest audience ever.

Bob Mills, a television favorite who stars daily on KGTV—ch. 10, is grand marshal of the parade. He will lead the long procession east on Broadway to Kempf st. The parade will turn south on Kempf and disband at the Lemon Grove Junior high school at Kempf and Lincoln.

Mills will lead the parade in an antique auto driven by Clarence Scheide.

The Order of March is included in this issue of this newspaper in a Parade Tabloid. Carry it with you to the parade.

Mickey Finn will supply a 1929 Packard to lend to the theme of the parade.

As the parade ends, youngsters will have a chance to win prizes in contests in the junior high school yard.

A carnival, held annually in conjunction with Old Time Days, concluded its successful run Sunday night at St. John of the Cross church parking lot.

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Acabar" is a Spanish verb that has many important uses. The variety of usages include present, past, and future tense forms. Each may have a slightly different meaning depending upon the context of the phrase and occasion.

"Acabo" is an example of the variations which means "ends" or "terminates." This is demonstrated in phrases like "La linea acaba aqui." (The line ends here.) and "El camino acaba en Texas." (The road ends in Texas.).

"Acabado" is the way to say "run out of." We may hear this in expressions like "Se me ha acabado el te." (I have run out of tea), and "Puede ser que he acabado el cafe." (It could be that I have run out of coffee.).

"Se acabo" may be used to express "it is over." This is seen in expressions "Se acabo el juego con mucha prisa." (The game was over very quickly.) and "Por fin se acabo el cine." (At last the movie was over.).

"Acaba de" is translated "had just." This is a component part of phrases like "El acaba de llegar cunado lo vi." (He had just arrived when I saw him.) and "Ella acaba de bajar del avion." (She had just got off the plane.).

"Acabara" is a future form which may be translated "will finish." This appears in many phrases like "El acabara su trabajo muy pronto." (He will finish his work very soon.) and "Cuando acabara ella?" (When will she finish?).

"Acabar" is the infinitive form which literally means "to finish." We may see this form in phrases like "Vamos a acabar el lunes." (We will finish on Monday.) and "Nunca vamos a acabar." (We will never finish.).

Sergeant Donald T. Buczynski, son of Mrs. Helen E. Buczynski of 9804 Austin rd., Spring Valley, recently helped launch a U.S. Air Force Minuteman II intercontinental bal-lloon AFB, Mont., traveled to Vandenberg for the mission. The launch was one in a series of operational testing launches conducted by the Strategic Air Command. The missile, selected at random from those on alert at Malmstrom, was transported—with its maintenance and launch—to Vandenberg.

The crews operated from the Vandenberg control center where they monitored the missile in an alert status. When the launch message was received from SAC headquarters, the crews reacted, launching the missile as they would from their home base in a combat operation.

Letter Raps High-Cost Political Campaigns

Dear Editor:

According to news reports dealing with a recent State Senate special election in Los Angeles County, State Senator Robbins spent $300,000 to win—the most money spent in the history of California for an election of that type. How much influence is represented by $300,000? It reminds me of the prize fighter who sold himself for 200%.

There has been some criticism in the 80th Assembly District race of county supervisor William Craven, 5th District. It is suggested he resign from his present office in order to run for the assembly. Of course it is common practice to run for office while in office, but is it right? Let us analyze what is the real advantage of being a supervisor, and also running for assembly in the same general area. Money wins elections. It's unfortunate, but true. Most of this money is special interest money. It is money that usually stays out of an election with your readers the "other side" of the debate. But not for our supervisor! Could it be that special interest money is buying favors it can't lose? If he loses the assembly race, he is still supervisor and the money has been well spent. If he wins the assembly seat, the effect is the same.

Heads, he wins, tails, he loses. Heads the public loses, tails the public loses.

There have been opinions expressed that there are three serious contenders (15 candidates in all) in this race. Well, if money is the criterion, there are only three. I can be a contender only if it is the man and the issues that will win this election, and not money.

We must start now to elect men who are not bought and paid for before they get into office. I demand full disclosure for this election. A $50 plate dinner will not disclose who gave what. Where is the money coming from for all these billboards, newspaper ads, radio and television time?

I want your vote, but I will not and cannot buy it!

We do it the hard way.

Your mother probably never told you to go into the savings and loan business.

It's not the easiest business in the world. And doing it right is just plain hard work.

Doing it right means knowing most of your customers on sight. Getting rid of outdated ways of doing business and finding new ways of looking at yourself. Knowing when to bend your own rules just a bit to do the right thing for a customer. Handling every loan and new account transaction as if your whole business future depended on it. (Which it does, in a way.)

And if you did all that, and just a little bit more, you'd have yourself one good savings and loan.

One like ours. La Jolla Federal Savings and Loan. We do it the hard way.

SDG&E advertises.

Because we have a lot to say...

To our customers.

We supply about 1,500,000 people with a very basic need...energy. And since we're the only people who do, we have a big responsibility to fill another basic need...information. So, through advertising, we let you know the whys and wherefores of rate changes, the possibilities of future power sources, problems that may affect your power supply and how we're operated and controlled for your benefit.

To home managers.

Through advertising, we let you know about SDG&E's wide range of services...monthly homemaking shows, free recipes, home service calls when you've got trouble, consumer information and a whole library of appliance use booklets. All designed to help you make the most of our product...and the money you spend on it. That's customer service. And that's what we're all about.

To our critics.

Utilities have become a popular target for attacks by special interest groups. And we respect that freedom. But we have 3,800 employees who work hard to bring you the best service at the lowest possible rates. And who work for a better environment through power plant modifications, undergrounding and environmental research. Because they enjoy living here, too.

We also have 30,000 investors who've put their money where their faith is. In SDG&E. Our advertising serves as a voice for these people who deserve to have their side of the story told. And it does wonders for employee morale... which, in turn, means better service for you.

To our competition.

You can't shop around for gas and electricity like you do for furniture or food. Because it would be wasteful and costly for an area to have several duplicate utility systems and operating costs. But SDG&E still must compete. We compete for the best employees and executives. Our advertising is designed to attract the kind of people who will give you the kind of service you've learned to expect from SDG&E. We also compete for investors. Expansion to meet your increasing energy needs requires a great deal of capital. Much of this money comes from investors who have confidence in our present and future capabilities. And much of this confidence comes from an investor's knowledge of SDG&E as it is communicated through its advertising.

To the community.

SDG&E is a member of this community. Just like you and your neighbors. So we have an obligation to let you know what we are contributing to its well-being. And to share its common problems. Our most recent series of ads on the environment and our role in its protection is an example of how advertising helps us fulfill this obligation.

Advertising is simply the least expensive and most efficient way to communicate with 500,000 customers. To reach you all by mail would cost about 16¢ a customer. In fact, the postage alone for 500,000 letters amounts to $40,000. Yet, to reach you through advertising... whether it be a newspaper, television or radio message... costs less than a penny per person. And when you consider the services, information and understanding that less-than-a-penny buys, our advertising is one of the best bargains around. Almost as good as dependable gas and electricity.

Aztec Varsity Whips Alumni In Annual Tilt

San Diego State closed its spring football drills Friday night with a 41-0 win over the Alumni before 10,300 in the annual Red-Black game in Aztec Bowl.

The Aztecs, for the first time under new coach Claude Gilbert, unveiled their new veer offense.

The varsity rushed 58 times for 282 net yards and threw the ball only 18 times for 153 yards.

Dave Darden, 5-10, 192 running back from El Camino College, was the game's leading rusher with 99 yards on 13 carries. Returnee Tim Thorn rolled up 78 yards on 16 carries and scored twice while Brad Stewart from Mira Costa had 31 yards on four carries and Bill Kramer from Los Angeles City College gained 37 yards on 10 carries.

Three quarterbacks, Jesse Freitas, Dick Clyde and Bobby Klatt, did the passing. Freitas started the game and hit on four of nine attempts for 59 yards and a 33 yard touchdown strike to Greg Moses. Clyde hit on all three of his passes for 23 yards and Klatt was three of six for 71 yards, including a 16 yard TD pass to Nate Ferguson. Klatt also hit on the game's longest play—a 40 yard pass to tight end Darold Nogle.

Ferguson caught three balls for 39 yards, Nogle two for 48, Moses one for 33, Tim Boyer one for nine and Darden one for 13.

The new veer offense, which features the ground game, is a complete break in tradition from the Aztecs pass oriented attack of the Don Coryell years.

The Aztecs are now off until mid-August and open the 1973 season on the road September 22 against Utah State in Logan, Utah.

Jackson Wins Twice To Tie For Loop Lead

Action continued hot and heavy in the Spring Valley Little League last week, as Jackson Supply moved into a tie for first place with One Hour Martinizing and Berg Electric, replacing Kiwanis in the three-way tie.

One Hour and Berg each split a pair of games, while Kiwanis took it on the chin twice and Jackson won two games.

Martinizing opened the week with a 6-5 loss to Luigi's, who scored the tie breaking run in the bottom of the fourth inning to claim the upset.

Jackson followed with a 4-3 heart-stopper over Moose Lodge, as Moose came from behind to tie it in the sixth inning at 3-3, but Jackson came back to score the winning run on an error in the seventh.

Berg Electric then put together a 6-run third inning to whip Kiwanis, 11-5, but the victory celebration was short-lived. Moose Lodge whipped Berg, 3-1, two days later. Even with the loss, Berg was in first place for a couple of hours, until One Hour Martinizing and Jackson won games to make it a three-way tie.

The most exciting game of the week was when Jackson beat Kiwanis, 7-6, despite two home runs and five runs batted in by Kiwanis star John Fox. Jackson scored the tie-breaking and game-winning run in the top of the sixth inning.

In the intermediate league, Art's Lumber stretched its half-game lead over second place Mission Bay Concrete to a full game by whipping Mission Bay, 15-1, before tying the Quick Way Construction, 9-9.

Mission Bay kept from slipping into third place by knocking off Alest Plumbing, 11-2.

In the minors, a four-way tie for first place became a two-way tie when co-leaders Worthy Plumbing beat Maple Cottage and Polar Frozen Foods topped TC Appliance. Last week, all four teams were knotted with identical 3-1 records.

Worth Plumbing went on to beat Lomita Bowl, 9-4, while Polar beat the Boosters, 15-9. In the rookie division, Jackson Supply and SV Shopping Center remained tied for first place, each team splitting a pair of games.

SV Shopping knocked off Jackson, 8-7, and appeared enroute to first place all alone, but Jackson beat Jones Insurance, 12-0, while Shopping Center fell to DeVore Painting, 20-10, to tie things again.

Annual Old Timers Game To Draw 50 Yesterstars

The Padres have invited more than 50 of baseball's most memorable players to participate in the second annual Old Timers Game on Friday night, July 13.

Larry French, former major league All-Star pitcher and San Diego resident, who again will serve as chairman of the event, said that this year's game promises to surpass last year's inaugural event that lured more than 30,000 to San Diego Stadium.

"If only half of the players who have been invited accept, this year's event will be the finest Old Timers game ever," French said. The list of invitations indicates a pitchers vs. batters battle between former stars of both leagues.

Included in the list of star pitchers asked to compete in a two-inning game prior to the Padres-St. Louis contest are Bob Feller, Dizzy Dean, Lefty Grove, Satchel Paige, Sandy Koufax, Lefty Gomez, Red Ruffing, Early Wynn, Warren Spahn and Whitey Ford.

Casey Stengel has been asked to return as manager, and the Padres have invited Fred Haney to manage the National League Club Ford Frick, former commissioner of baseball, also has been invited to attend.

To make the on-the-field introduction of the Old Timers, the Padres have asked Howard Cosell to serve as master of ceremonies.

Tickets for the Old Timers game on July 13 now are on sale at the Padres Stadium ticket windows open daily through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tickets also may be ordered by mail: send check or money order plus 25 cents for handling and desired seat location to Padres Tickets, P.O. Monarchs In Playoffs; Miguel Misses Chance

It all came down to the wire, but Spring Valley will have just one representative in the CIF baseball playoffs, as Monte Vista split a pair of games last week to grab a tie for the league title, and Mount Miguel split two games to finish fifth, not good enough for a playoff berth.

The playoffs got underway Tuesday, with Monte Vista hosting Clairemont.

Before Friday's games, Monte Vista was tied with El Cap, after losing to the Vaqueros Tuesday, and Mt. Miguel was one game behind Granite Hills, the third place team. A third place tie would have given Mt. Miguel a chance at a playoff slot.

To make matters even more interesting, Mt. Miguel had a chance to tie with Granite Hills for the last playoff position by whipping them Friday afternoon. And Mt. Miguel was rated a fairly good chance at beating the Eagles, after Steve Long shut out the best hitting team in the league earlier in the year with a one-hitter.

Mt. Miguel started the game in control of things, scoring a

Ronson Sets Records At Playing, Scoring For San Diego Gulls

The San Diego Gulls have still sav action in 18 games now completed seven full seasons in the Western Hockey League and left wing Len Ronson holds just about every scoring record possible for the blue and orange.

The only Gull to play in San Diego every season since 1966-67, Len has played in more games, 444, scored more goals, 206, more assists, 210, and has more total points, 416, than any other player who has ever worn a Gull uniform.

This past season was the least productive for Ronson in his seven years in San Diego as he scored 30 points on 12 goals and 18 assists. But he became the first player in Gull history to score 200 goals and he passed former Gull Warren Hynes when he moved his assist total to 210. Hynes had the old record with 207 helping passes.

Ronson has played in every San Diego playoff game, 36, and he is the all-time scoring leader in that department. His 14 goals and 19 assists give him a total of 33 points. Willie O'Ree, veteran right wing, is the best playoff goal scorer with 16 red-lighters.

O'Ree spent most of the season in New Haven but he

Jim Cardiff, the scrappy little defenseman, still holds the team record in penalty minutes with 396. Another former Gull, Jim Eagle, is second with 328. Coach Jack Evans is third on the penalty minute list with 301 and current Gull defenseman John Miszuk is fourth with 299 minutes.

Goalie Ken Broderick, completing his best season in the pro ranks, lowered his goals against average to 3.09 over 93 games, third best of all the Gull goalies. Jack McCartan still holds the record for most games by a San Diego net-minder, 186, and he also has the most wins with 79. Bob Champoux has won 8 playoff games, the best of all Gull goaltenders and also has the best playoff goals against average with a mark of 2.81. Bob has the only shutout by a San Diego goalie in the playoffs, that recorded just this past season.

Grossmont, Helix, Monte Vista Top Math Teams

Grossmont District schools have finished first, second and third in the recently completed annual mathematics examination for Southern California.

Competing with 124 high schools from throughout Southern California, Grossmont placed first, Helix second, and Monte Vista third, according to the official results of the written test, which was given in March. In addition, Grossmont District students won three of the top nine individual honors, seven of the top 2, and placed a total of eight winners on the 28-student honor roll.

In comparison with other San Diego County schools, the Grossmont District placed four in the top 11, with Granite Hills earning a 10th place ranking, and had six of 11 individual honor scores.

The annual competition is sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America, the Society of Actuaries, Mu Alpha Theta, and the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Each participating school allowed about 30 students to take the math exam. Of these, the top three were submitted to represent the school as a team. The students received no special preparation for the examination, and participation was voluntary, according to Mrs. Paz Jensen, who was chairman for Grossmont High School. The chairman at Monte Vista was Barbara Jones, and at Helix it was Jack Munson.

Winning a place on the individual honor roll was John G. Lamping of Monte Vista, whose 104.25 was fourth best in Southern California, and best in San Diego County; Michael J. Boycott Could Cut

Beef Prices Says Meat Producer

"If housewives really boycott beef the price would drop dramatically," V. V. Williams, chairman of the California Beef Council told reporters Tuesday at a luncheon sponsored by the organization.

Williams, a Calexico feedlot operator, insisted that supply and demand controls prices. "Once in the feedlot, the operator is married to the animal for ten months," he said. "When finished off, the operator has to take what the market will pay," he said.

Fred Cameron, a partner in C & M Packing in National City, one of several smaller packers in the southwest, said San Diego beef prices are among the lowest in the nation. "Competition among supermarkets," he explained.

The luncheon Tuesday featured steak, naurally.

Teen Age Girls Sought For Conservation Corps

A $23,000 grant under the California Youth Conservation Act will make it possible for 50 girls in San Diego County to spend eight weeks doing conservation work at Camp Ole this summer. The camp is located at Mt. Laguna, about 65 miles east of San Diego.

M. Ted Dixon, county superintendent, said that the YCC program is offered in cooperation with the State of California, the County Department of Education, and the Cleveland National Forest, along with participating high schools. San Diego was the first county in the state to receive a grant under this combined state and federal program. This is the last year of a three-year pilot program authorized by Public Law 91-378.

The hilarious new comedy, which also stars Brooks West, is scheduled for a pre-Broadway tour this Fall.

The "Lenny" opening, starring Sandy Baron will be delayed until Thursday, June 7, instead of the previously announced June 5; according to producers Don Wortman and Tom Hartzog. Auction, Parade Top Kiwanis Discussions

The breakfast meeting of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, for May 9, was a busy one.

Bob Belt, chairman of the first annual auction sale of the club, pointed out that all was ready for the sale, set for May 19, the parking lot of Mayfair Market. He read the long list of donors and helpers, scheduled for that day and requested that all members have their wives bake cup cakes, to go on sale at the auction.

Lee Green, chairman of the recent "Spring Valley Beautiful" campaign, told of the success of the venture and thanked all who helped with the program.

Burt Hodge, chairman of the Casa de Oro Flag Day, set for June 9, suggested that the club have an entry in the parade. President Craig Howry said that as long as the Kiwanis theme for this year is "To Share Your Life," it would be a good idea to enter a float.

Guest speaker was Julius R. Jensen, Certified Industrial Developer, and was introduced by Herb Ketell, program chairman.

Jensen, with the Economic Development Corporation of San Diego, told of his calling upon many industrial prospects around the world. But, he said, San Diego has not done a good job of telling its story. He said he has been stressing the point of what will happen when government contracts end.

Jensen did say, however, that San Diego is the first city in the nation to have an "Industrial Park," where many experiments can take place. He said San Diego has "Four Legs" on which to stand, and named an income of $600 million per year, and a military income of $500 million, as two examples. He said there is a county payroll of approximately 46,000 persons. San Diego City, he said, has the lowest taxes of any of the comparable cities in the state. He said San Diego has been pointed out as "America's Finest City," and will be formally recognized as such, at a celebration, scheduled August 14.

Jensen said there are many "big" small industries coming into the county. Many medical sciences are moving in, and a company to help the printing industry is being made ready here, also.

Harold Greene Heads KCST News Team

The appointment of Harold Greene as News Director of KCST-39TV was announced last week by Bill Fox, Vice President and General Manager of the San Diego station. In making the announcement, Fox said, "Our search has ended. We have found the 'eyewitness news director' who is perfect for the needs of KCST. Greene's background, his personality, his look, and his enthusiasm will become a major San Diego television fixture in a very short time.

Greene, 30-years of age, has spent the past two-and-one-half years as producer and reporter for the dynamic "Eyewitness News" on KABC Channel 7 in Los Angeles. As News Director of 39TV, Greene will implement the "Eyewitness News" format, which is a unique, friendly approach. The target beginning date for 39TV's "Eyewitness News" is set for sometime this summer.

Sadie Hawkins Due At Monte Vista High

Dogpatch comes to Monte Vista High school next week. The school's first annual Sadie Hawkins Day is set for 10 a.m. Saturday, May 26, in the school's stadium.

Bands interested in taking part in the Battle should contact Marla Brayshay weekdays at 461-2800 11-12 noon.

'Spirited' Stage Play To Open at College

Grossmont College's Griffin Players will open John Patrick's "spirited" comedy "Lo and Behold" at 8 p.m. this evening in the Stagehouse Theatre. Wholesome entertainment for the whole family, the play, by the author of "The Teahouse of the August Moon," will also be staged May 18, 19, 24, 25 and 26.

The story concerns Milo Alcott, an ill and aging Nobel Prize winner who has spent his declining years catering to an ailing heart. All preparations made for his trip to the "other world," he eats a huge meal and dies happily. But instead of an afterlife of solitude, he finds that propriety does not exist in the spirit world. Three spirits move in: An Indian maiden, Minnetonka Smallflower (she was pushed over Lover's Leap); Kenneth Moore, a frustrated composer (who may have committed suicide) and Honey Wainwright, a Southern belle of the Civil War period.

As if this isn't enough to complicate Alcott's "hereafter," plans, his cook, Daisy, a former model and the one who unknowingly served the fatal dishes, returns to the house and is mistaken for Alcott's illegitimate daughter. Things all work out, of course, and everybody . . . er . . . "lives" happily ever after.

The comedy will be directed by drama instructor James W. Baker who is also designing the set. Student Debra Denison, designed the costumes under the supervision of drama instructor Clark G. Mires. Technical direction will be handled by Gary Parsons.

Heading the cast list is William Barton, Lemon Grove, who portrays Milo Alcott with Diane Kucala, Spring Valley, playing Daisy Durdle.

Ned's Lido's Top Pony Loop

Ned's Outboard was knocked out of first place in the Sky-Grove Pony League last week by the Green Machine, 15-4, but retained a share in the league lead by knocking off a Grossmont League team, 7-1, in an inter-league contest.

Lido's won a pair of games over A-Rooter, 4-1, and 9-4, to move into a tie with Ned's. In other league contests, Murphy's Plumbing surprised the Lions, 5-4 and 6-4, holding off bases-loaded threats in both games for the victories.

In inter-league contests, Murphy lost to Spring Valley's Puente and Sons, 2-1, the Lions knocked off Spring Valley's Dodgers, 5-4, the Spring Valley Giants whipped the Green Machine, 5-4, and Lido's bombed the Spring Valley Padres, 17-0, on a no hitter by John Young.

In other inter-loop games, it was the Green Machine winning, 11-4, over Grossmont's Yellow Jackets in eight innings, A-Rooter bested Grossmont's PDA, 2-1, on a two hitter and a two-run homer by Greg Salva, the Lions nailed the Grossmont McMullens, 8-2 on a one hitter by Mike Neagle, and Ned's trounced their Grossmont opponents, 7-1.

Schools Get New Auto Engines

Grossmont District high schools will receive 13 new automotive and diesel engines complete with transmissions and rear axle assemblies as part of a massive educational giveaway by the Ford Motor Company.

The total value of the automotive equipment being received by San Diego County schools will exceed $150,000. The equipment is being donated via local Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers as a project of the Ford and Lincoln-Mercury Community Relations Committee.

The presentation to principals and automotive instructors will be made at 1 p.m. tomorrow, at the San Diego Unified School District Warehouse, 211 Commercial st., San Diego. Trustee-elect Joe Drew will be on hand for the presentations, since his agency, Drew Ford of La Mesa, will provide the equipment which is destined for Helix and Grossmont high schools.

The offer was originally made to high schools in a letter dated October 10, 1972. In order to qualify, a school had to have a course running at least 20 hours a week. Automobile engines, transmissions, diesel power trains, and air conditioning units were available to schools which had programs in each specific area.

BOB MILLS

Mills Named Grand Marshal For Parade

One of San Diego's best known television personalities, KGTV-10 Bob Mills, has been named grand marshal of the Lemon Grove Old Time Days Parade, which will be 11 a.m. Saturday downtown in Lemon Grove. Mills serves double duty at channel 10 by hosting the weekday afternoon "Dialing For Dollars" movie and producing and narrating "Bob Mills' San Diego" on the station's evening news program. Bob was graduated from Marshall College in Huntington, West Virginia. He began his broadcasting career at WONW Radio in Defiance, Ohio, and worked for radio stations in Kentucky, Texas, and West Virginia before entering the television field at WSAZ-TV in West Virginia.

'Best Parade Ever' At 11 a.m. Saturday

The biggest and best Old Time Days parade ever is scheduled for Saturday along Broadway in Lemon Grove, according to OTD parade chairman Don McCray.

The parade, scheduled for 11 a.m., will be led by grand marshal Bob Mills, of KGTV-10, and will include many new bands and floats, McCray said.

Floats entered will include those of the Lemon Grove Lions Club, St. Philip's Church, St. John's Church CYO, and the Ox Bow Inn.

Marching in the first division will be the Lemon Grove Junior High Band, always popular and the recent winner of an award at the Maytime Band Review in National City.

Newly selected Miss Lemon Grove, Suzanne Pickerd, will also appear in the first division, riding in a 1933 Ford pickup truck.

Other top bands that will march in the parade are those from Mt. Miguel, Montgomery, and Mar Vista High Schools, the San Diego City-County Band, Ozzie's Marching Band, the Home Federal Marching Band, and Cameron's Highlanders Bagpipe band.

Plenty of fun for youngsters is in store during the parade, as clowns join in to prod laughs and offer candy. The Lemon Grove VFW Clowns and the VFW Auxiliary Clowns will be among the favorites.

Another of the most popular entries in the parade are the Lemonettes, led by Lemon Drip, Lemon Drop, and Mr. Lem N. Grove. The Lemonettes are a group of Lemon Grove businessmen who feel an urge to get dressed in ladies' apparel and "go out on the town."

They keep busy in their roles by appearing in parades and other functions around the county, passing out lemon drops to children. Featured among their numbers is Lemon Drop, the famed 250-pound ballerina.

More pleasing to the eye will be a host of beauty queens who will also ride in the parade. Debra Holland, Miss Spring Valley, will be among them, as will Miss Lemon Grove.

Bleachers will be set up as usual in the parking lot at Mayfair Market, but they will be offered free this year.

Contributing to this year's parade, in addition to the Old Time Days Association members and Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce secretary Helen Myers, are the Lemon Grove Moose Lodge and members of Explorer Post 168, who will pass out programs and help maintain order.

Miss Lemon Grove To Ride In OTD Parade

Appearing in the first division of this year's parade will be the recently-selected 1973 Miss Lemon Grove, Miss Suzanne Pickerd, Lemon Grove's primary representative.

Miss Pickerd, 17, who will be joined in the parade by other beauty queens from throughout the county, has brown hair and green eyes, stands five feet, eight inches tall, and measures 35-26-36.

BIG BERTHA? — No, it's Lemon Drop, one of the Lemonettes, who are among the favorite entries in the OTD Parade ever. The Lemonettes are really a group of local businessmen who like to get "dressed up".

Carnival Held

Among the attractions of the 1973 Old Time Days celebrations was a Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce-sponsored carnival at Saint John of the Cross Church, which ran last week.

Banquet Kicks-off Annual OTD Activity

The turnout was light — but the group was enthusiastic.

Fifty persons attended the "thank-you-in-advance" Kick Off dinner-dance May 5 sponsored by the Old Time Days Association in the VFW Hall on Imperial ave.

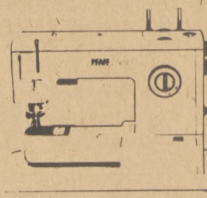

The banquet is held each year to kick off the intense activity that goes into putting together the Old Time Days promotion to be held in Lemon Grove May 17-20 and climaxing in a Parade May 19.

OTD President Don McCray noted that this year's parade would be a record-breaker with more than 60 units already signed up. "It proves that a small but dedicated group can accomplish big things," he said.

He commended Helen Myers, L.G. CofC secretary-manager for effort and co-operation in this year's event

Mills Named Parade Marshal

During his 22 years as a television personality, he has emceed variety and children's shows, announced news, weather and special events, narrated films, conducted talent contests and charity telethons, and has been a commercial spokesvision over a decade ago, man.

Mills broke into area television hosting the "Sun-Up" news and talk show for KFMB-TV 8 before moving to KGST Channel 39, and finally to KGTV.

In 1964 he was selected as the first San Diego television personality to emcee the celebrity-studded stage show at the Southern California Exposition at Del Mar. Since that time, he has maintained a constant schedule of personal appearances throughout Southern California.

Bob, his wife and two daughters live in Del Cerro.

Financial help for San Diego's first railroad

First loans to local fishermen.

New car loans, almost before there were new cars.

NOW THAT WE'RE NINETY, YOU CAN EXPECT SOME NEW WRINKLES.

Those first new wrinkles came along soon after we opened our doors in 1883. They were followed by many more. We were the first local bank to finance private aircraft and first to install electronic data processing. We expanded our branch offices into three counties, stretched our banking hours and shrunk checking account service charges down to nothing (with a $100 balance). It's been a very wrinkled past. We look forward to an even more wrinkled future.

Hello, Lemon Grove

The essence of living in a modern tho' quaint little town gives one a deep sense of security and graciousness. This same feeling is part of the philosophy of our method of doing business in Lemon Grove.

Sure, we have the "Battle of the Budget", the same as every other Community. But, by it we are only strengthened by our faith and hope, the same as our forefathers in the good unless it's San Diego Trust.

Here's why!

Most people think banks are all alike. Most of them are. But many years ago, San Diego Trust decided to be different. And that decision still holds today.

We decided to think of banking from the customer's point of view...to create services that really fit your needs. The result? We were first with no-charge checking (with a $100 minimum balance)...first with high-earning savings accounts (InvestAccount)...first with one low price on auto loans (new or used)...and the first bank in San Diego to offer Master Charge.

Doesn't a bank that's been first with that many good ideas sound like your kind of bank?

Come talk with us at our Lemon Grove office.

Where money matters, but people count.
